EVENT PERMIT APPLICATION for Amateur Combat Sport Events APPLICATION PACKAGE

This application package contains information on obtaining a permit for amateur combat sport events in the Province of British Columbia. An event permit is only valid for a single event/date and is not transferable.

To hold an amateur kickboxing, MMA, muay thai or pankration event in British Columbia, you must:

- Have a valid BC Promoter Registration; and
- Have (or work with someone who holds) a valid BC Matchmaker Registration

Registered promoters must submit a completed event permit application form at least 60 days in advance of any planned amateur event. Your application will not be considered until all required information has been submitted.

If an event permit is issued, there are additional requirements that must be met in order to hold the event. These include such things as (but not limited to):

- Holding third party event insurance
- Providing security plans
- Providing medical plans
- Providing performance bonds

Contact the Office of the Athletic Commissioner for full information.

You may also be required to obtain permits or licences from the municipality that you intend to hold the event in, as well as from the police and fire services. It is your responsibility to contact these offices to ascertain their requirements and to comply with them. You are advised to contact them 60 days in advance of your intended event date.

An Event Permit may be cancelled by the Commissioner if full disclosure is not made or, where it has been determined after a Permit has been issued that the answers on your application were incomplete or incorrect.

There are two (2) steps to obtaining a permit; simply complete the Event Permit Application and forward the document to the Office of the Athletic Commissioner.

EVENT PERMIT APPLICATION for Amateur Combat Sport Events TERMS AND CONDITIONS

General Terms and Conditions of Every Event Permit

The following terms and conditions apply to every Event Permit:

- Every Event Permit holder must comply with
 - any terms and conditions imposed on the Event Permit by the Commissioner.
- The Event Permit holder must make the Event Permit available for inspection on request of any person at the event.
- The Event Permit holder must ensure that each person who performs activities or provides services at or in relation to the amateur contest or exhibition and is required to be registered with the BC Athletic Commissioner in respect of that activity of service, holds a valid registration for that activity or service.
- Companies not employing British Columbia workers and working less than 15 days in B.C. must provide proof of workers' compensation coverage. If a company does not have workers' compensation coverage, or will be working in B.C. more than 15 days in a calendar year, that company must obtain coverage from WorkSafeBC. WorkSafeBC registration is mandatory for any company employing B.C. workers regardless of employment length.
- Promoters are responsible to ensure they obtain the necessary business permits as required to operate within any particular municipality.

Duties and Requirements of Event Permit Holders

Post Approval of Event Permit and Prior to the Event:

1. No later than 30 days and no earlier than 60 days before the scheduled date of an event, the promoter must provide evidence to the Commissioner that the promoter holds at least $5 000 000 of third party liability insurance coverage for the event.
2. No later than 30 days before the date scheduled for an event, the promoter must provide to the Commissioner a security plan for the event that is acceptable to the Commissioner. Each time in the 30-day period before the event that there is a change in the security plan, the promoter must provide to the Commissioner an updated plan that is acceptable to the Commissioner.
3. No later than 30 days before the date scheduled for an event, the promoter must provide to the Commissioner a medical plan for the event that is acceptable to the Commissioner. Each time in the 30-day period before the event that there is a change in the medical plan, the promoter must provide to the Commissioner an updated plan that is acceptable to the Commissioner.
4. No later than 30 days before the date of an event, the promoter must provide to the Commissioner a list of the proposed matches, including for each the names of the proposed contestants, whether the match is a boxing or MMA event and the weight class of the contestants.

5. At least 14 days before the date of an event, the promoter must provide to the Commissioner all the following information in respect of the event:
 - a list of the proposed matches, including for each the names of the proposed contestants, whether the match is a kickboxing, MMA, muay thai or pankration event and the weight class of the contestants;
 - the number of rounds proposed for each proposed match;
 - a declaration signed by a matchmaker that the contestants proposed for each proposed match are suitable competitors;
 - any other changes to the proposed program for the event from the original proposal provided as part of the event permit application;
 - any other information requested by the Commissioner.
6. At least 7 days before the date of an event, the promoter must provide to the Commissioner
 - if the information provided under #4 has not changed, confirmation of that information,
 - if the information provided under #4 has changed, the new information and, if the contestants for a match have changed, a declaration signed by a matchmaker that the new contestants proposed for the match are suitable competitors, and
 - contestants' forms to be sent in one complete package (blood work results, medicals, etc., to be compiled and then submitted together)
 - any other information requested by the Commissioner.
7. A promoter must not add contestants to the program for an event less than 3 days before the date scheduled for the event without the approval of the Commissioner.
8. A promoter must advise the Commissioner as soon as practicable, but no later than 24 hours before the event is scheduled to begin, of any changes in the information provided under # 4 or #5 above.
9. A promoter must ensure that each contestant in an event is present in the locale where the event is to take place during the 30-hour period immediately before the event is scheduled to begin.
10. If a promoter learns that a contestant scheduled for a match in an event is unable to participate in the event, the promoter must immediately notify the Commissioner in writing and provide, in respect of any substitute contestant, the information that the promoter was required to provide to the commissioner in respect of all contestants in the event.
11. If there is a change in the program for an event after the program has been announced to the public, the promoter must post notice of the change at each box office at the event.
12. At or before the weigh-in ceremony for an event, the promoter must provide to the Commissioner a copy of each signed contract between the promoter and a contestant and the contestant's fight record.

During the Event:

13. The promoter of an event, at the promoter's expense, must ensure that emergency medical services, including one ambulance and at least 2 emergency medical assistants as defined in the Emergency Health

BC Athletic Commissioner - AMATEUR -

Services Act and who are qualified in the licence categories the Commissioner considers appropriate, are available at all times during the event;

14. The promoter of an event, at the promoter's expense, must arrange for and ensure the attendance of the security officers required under the security plan, or amended security plan, as applicable, submitted to the commissioner under #2.
15. The promoter of an event, at the promoter's expense, must reserve 6 front row seats at the event for the commissioner's use and deliver to the commissioner, at least 5 days before the date of the event, tickets or passes authorizing admission to the reserved seats.

Post Event:

16. The promoter must pay all amounts owing to contestants for the event in the presence of the Commissioner or a person designated by the Commissioner. The promoter must not pay amounts owing to a Contestant for an event unless the Contestant has consented in writing to any post-match medical suspension imposed after the event.
17. The promoter must provide to the commissioner within the 15 day-period after the event:
 - a statutory declaration or affidavit of the promoter, or in the case of a corporation, of an officer or director of the corporation, stating the gross gate receipts for the event, and
 - the amount payable in respect of the event, by certified cheque, money order or electronic funds transfer (section 5 of the Athletic Commissioner Regulation).
18. The commissioner may realize on a performance bond required under #3 if the amount payable referred to in #17 (and required under section 5 of the Athletic Commissioner Regulation) is not paid within 7 days after the expiry of the 15 day period for payment of the gate receipt payment.
19. It is the responsibility of the promoter to determine whether a business licence from the municipality where the event is occurring is necessary and to obtain that licence as required.

These above terms and conditions, duties and requirements are not met until any information or document that these term or conditions require to be provided is provided in a manner satisfactory to the Commissioner.
